Sociolinguistics and bilinguilism for natural language processing, VT 2018

Sociolinguistic and bilinguilism for natural language processing, 7.5 hecr, PhD course in Computational Linguistics.

The course gives a survey of theory in... We will look at topics such as ..., and others.

Course prerequisites: general and specific entry requirements for admission to 3rd cycle education and general study plan for Linguistics or Computational Linguistics or equivalent language technology skills and knowledge.

Course syllabus

- In Swedish
- In English

Instructors

In the order of apperance...

- Sally Boyd (SB) (course organiser)
- Simon Dobnik (SD)

You can contact instructors by following the information on their webpages or you can send them a message through GUL.

News

News will be published on the Message board on the left so make sure you regularly check it.

Course literature

For a list of suggested readings please see folder "Readings". Different readings will be suggested for each meeting.

Schedule and course materials

1. Planning (SB)
   2 Feb 2018, 10:00 to 12:00

Location: Dicksonsgatan 4

2. Sociolinguistics (SB)
   16 Feb 2018, 10:00 to 12:00
   Location: Dicksonsgatan 4

3. Bilinguilsm and code switching (SB)
   9 Mar 2018, 10:00 to 12:00
   Location: Dicksonsgatan 4

4. Student topic 1 (SB)
   29 Mar 2018, 10:00 to 12:00
   Location: Dicksonsgatan 4

5. Student topic 2, PhD course (SB)
   20 Apr 2018, 10:00 to 12:00
   Location: Dicksonsgatan 4
   Note: we now have three students taking the course, so we will either add a course meeting or use the 29/3 or 20/4 meetings for two student presentations. We can discuss this.

Meetings will take place at Dicksonsgatan 4. Here is a good map of the campus.